NOTIFICATION.

Fort St. George, September 26, 1923
(G.O. No. 24, 1923, Public)

No. 18.—The following scheme of the Government of India (Army Department) is published:—

SCHEME FOR THE REORGANISATION OF INDIA ARMY GROUP CENTRES.

1. Generalised—The purpose of reorganising, rearing and maintenance of personnel, each day squadron will be attached to Cavalry Group Centre.

2. Regimental in place—Office Commanding, Cavalry Group Centre, will, in power, maintain registers containing particulars of soldiers' names and addresses of their own groups, who are eligible and willing to serve in these day squadrons. No payment will be made on registration and no retaining fee will be admissible.

Special forms for use on registration (Indian Army Form 912) and for calling up men on application (Indian Army Form 946-A) have been issued and will be supplied on request to registration officers.

3. Transfer on application—On personal application, the Office Commanding the Cavalry Group Centre will immediately call up men registered for employment with the day squadrons of his Group Centre, up to the numbers considered necessary, according to the state of expansion of the Group Centre (see War Establishment, India, Volume IV). From the date on which they join, they will become part of the Group Centre and will take away notices distributed daily at the discretion of the commanding officer.

4. Eligibility—All ex-Indian soldiers and ex-soldiers including ex-servicemen, whether discharged or not, provided, will be eligible for re-employment on an agreement to day squadrons, provided that they bear a good character and are actually fit for service in India.

Officers and men (except ex-servicemen and pensioners) who are actually fit for service in the field will not be accepted, as this would affect detrimentally recruitment for fighting units.

5. Terms of service—(a) Ex-Indian soldiers will be re-employed on their previous rank held by them on retirement. They will, however, be employed, with due consideration to their rank and seniority, in the duties for which they are considered suitable by the Office Commanding, Cavalry Group Centre, to which they are attached and will receive the pay and allowances of the appointment held (within the ranks and numbers authorized in the war establishment for a day squadron) as received by former holders of similar appointments in permanent units.

(b) Non-commissioned officers and men will be re-employed in the rank and appointment considered most appropriate to their previous rank and to their qualifications at the time of re-employment.

(c) Service will be for the period of one year (or longer) and 15 months thereafter provided that their services are so long required.

(d) Recruitment and retention will be on Indian Army Form E-1207. Applications will be carried out immediately on completion.

(e) Promotions in and on Indian commissioned and non-commissioned ranks may be made as required to complete establishment.

6. Cost Comparison—As far as possible, the direct comparison of the day squadrons will be made in that of the requirements of the group to which it belongs. The comparison of service in the day squadrons, as left in the direction of the Cavalry Group Centre Commanding.

7. Pay and Allowances—(a) The officers commanding the day squadrons will be entitled to pay as admissible to an officer regularly employed in the same capacity.

(b) While actually employed, Indian soldiers and other subject Indian day squadrons will be entitled to allowances as follows:—

(i) Pay of rank as Indian cavalry rates.

(ii) Pension already earned.

(iii) Good service, good conduct and proficiency pay; (iv) During service in the rank of soldier, good conduct or proficiency pay at the rate to which entitled immediately prior to discharge; (v) On promotion to next commissioned rank, good service pay or the good conduct pay to which the soldier's character and service up to the date last stated as that of a soldier would entitle him, whichever is more favourable.

(d) Service with day squadrons will count as qualifying service for pension in cases where a pension has not already been earned subject to the usual condition as regards the refund of gratuity which may have been received, but in no case will such service be permitted to count towards any pensionable rate of pension where pension has already been earned.

(e) The squadrons will receive good pay as admissible to a third-grade rank.

(f) The following squadrons allowances will be admissible:—

(i) An initial grant of Rs. 10 to cover the cost of purchase of books and stationery.

(ii) A monthly allowance of Rs. 30. These allowances will be drawn on the following conditions:—

(a) The initial grant when the squadrons is started.

(b) Half the monthly allowance when 50 and the full allowance when 100 men have been enrolled in the squadrons.

8. Reimbursement—Free uniforms while employed, as admissible to the Indian Army, including of uniforms and equipment issued by the Indian Army Service Corps.

9. Passages—Free passages by rail, road, river and sea from their place of residence in the unit and thence to their homes on demobilisation.

10. Permitted and leave—Casual leave only will be admissible during the first year's service in day squadrons, after which 2 months' leave and 2 months' furlough may be granted in alternate years at the discretion of the officer commanding the regiment, provided the exigencies of the service so permit.

On demobilisation, one month's leave on full duty pay will be granted.

11. Follow-up—Will be engaged as above if followed at the lowest rates of pay at which admissible locally (Army Instruction (India) No. 347 of 1922).

12. Equipment and clothing—No clothing allowance will be admissible. Clothing and equipment will be issued on the Indian Army Form E-1207, and will remain the property of Government.

13. Periodical inspection—Verification of all men registered for duty with day squadrons will be carried out annually by Local Governments and Administrations on regional rolls showing last known addresses which will be supplied to them by Office Commanding, Cavalry Group Centre, on the 31st April of each year. In the case of men who reside in the Indian States of Mysore, Kanpur and Gwalior, the verification will be carried out by means of reply-paid postcards despatched by the Office Commanding, Cavalry Group Centre, to those registered by them.

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIES AND LABOUR.

PORTS AND TERMINAL FRANCHISE.

The 10th September 1933.

No. W-1018.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 4 of the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885 (XXII of 1885), the Government in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the establishment, maintenance and working of wireless telegraphs on shore within or where British India or Indian territorial waters:—

Short Title.

1. (1) These Rules may be called the Indian Wireless (Ports and Terminals) Rules, 1933.

(2) They shall come into force on the 1st October 1933.

Definitions.

2. In these rules, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context:—

(1) "Convention" means the International Radiotelegraph Convention at Washington, 1927, and the General and Additional Regulations appended thereto and includes any modification of the said Convention or Regulations made from time to time.

(2) "Vessel" includes jetties, whether natural or artificial, steamer, navigable river, pier, jetty and other works in or at which ships can come alongside, or ship or ship's goods or passengers.

(3) "Fixed Station," "Land Station" and "Ship Station" have respectively the meaning assigned to them in the Convention, and

(4) "Service Signal" means signalling by means of any system of wireless telegraphy between any fixed, land or mobile stations of the Empire, Dominion or Indian Naval, Military or Air Force.

3. Subject to the modifications contained in these rules a Wireless Telegraph may be established, maintained and worked on any vessel other than an aircraft registered in British India, within or where British India or Indian territorial waters without a licence under the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885.

4. The Wireless Telegraph shall be duly licensed in accordance with the Convention.

5. No person shall work the transmitting apparatus of the Wireless Telegraph unless he holds a certificate granted in accordance with the Convention.

6. In the case of aircraft registered in countries which have not adhered to the Convention there may be substituted for the licence and the certificate referred to in rules 4 and 5 such other licence or certificate as the Telegraph Authority may direct.

7. No person shall send any message by means of the wireless telegraph on any coast, (other than military aircraft) within the limits in which or where British India or Indian territorial waters where and where such messages may be forwarded by a Government telegraph.

8. Except with the general or special permission in writing of the Telegraph Authority no person shall work or use a wireless telegraph on any aircraft (other than military aircraft) within or where British India or Indian territorial waters except during actual flight or in case of forced landing, and then only for the purpose of transmitting or receiving messages of the following categories:—

- (a) emergency or safety messages;
- (b) meteorological messages;

- (c) unattended messages;
 (d) signals for announcing positions;
 (e) signals of departure, position or arrival;
 (f) messages necessary for the conduct of the fight or an action.

Provided that military aircraft accompanying a foreign ship-at-war when working or using a wireless telegraph while the ship is in any harbour or in India shall comply with the following conditions, namely:—

- (a) messages shall be transmitted or accepted from:—

- (1) the Telegraph Authority;
 (2) any British Naval, Royal Indian Marine or Royal Air Force authority;
 (3) the port authorities; or
 (4) any land station;
 (5) provided, signalling involving the use of apparatus transmitting other than pure continuous waves shall be avoided.

(b) if there is a British ship at war lying in the harbour, the British Senior Naval Officer shall be consulted before the wireless telegraph is worked or used.

3. No person shall work or use the wireless telegraph in any aircraft whilst the aircraft is within or above British India or Indian territorial waters in such a way as to interfere or interfere with anyone signalling or the transmission of messages between other wireless stations.

3b. When communications are made by wireless telegraph between any aircraft within or above British India or Indian territorial waters and a land station the rules given in the book "General Order and Departmental Instructions for Radio-Telegraph Stations in India" shall be observed.

3c. Nothing in these rules shall apply to the use of wireless telegraphs for the purpose of making or answering signals of distress.

3d. Except as provided in these rules the Wireless Telegraph shall be worked in accordance with any rules for the conduct of wireless telegraphs made under section 7 of the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, in so far as they are applicable.

RULES.

1. Short title.—These rules may be called "The Madras Juvenile Court Rules, 1930."

2. Constitution of the juvenile court.—Every juvenile court (hereinafter referred to as the "court") constituted under sub-section (1) of section 28 of the Madras Children Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), shall consist of one selected magistrate and one honorary magistrate who shall, wherever possible, be a woman; provided that in the absence of the honorary magistrate, it shall be competent for the selected magistrate to exercise singly all or any of the powers of the court.

3. Proceedings of the court.—The police generally shall not have any access to, or be or remain in, the room or building used by the court; but the court may, at its discretion, permit any person to be present during the sittings or any part of the proceedings of a case. No report of any proceedings in the court shall be published without the court's permission; and in such report, where permitted, shall mention the name of the child or young person involved.

4. Procedure in case of disagreement.—In case of any disagreement between the members of the Bench constituting the court, the opinion of the senior magistrate shall prevail.

5. Presence and time and place of sitting of court.—Subject to the control of the Governor in Council, the Chief Presidency Magistrate in the Presidency town and the District Magistrate elsewhere may appoint and may, from time to time, determine from the selected and honorary magistrates within the local limits of his jurisdiction, the magistrates who shall sit in the court and the time when and the place at which the court shall sit.

6. Police officer not to wear uniform in court.—No police officer who conducts the case or who gives evidence or who is present in court for any other purpose shall be in uniform. Every such officer shall wear his ordinary dress.

7. Procedure to be adopted in court.—The procedure shall be in accordance with the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the trial of summons cases shall be observed by the court in the trial of all cases, whether summons cases or warrant cases.

8. Court to take cognizance of all cases under the Act.—When a court has been established in any district, all cases referred to in sub-section (1) of section 30 of the said Act in that district except those relating to children of persons registered as members of criminal tribes under the Criminal Tribes Act, 1924, shall be taken before, and dealt with by the court.

For information regarding patents in countries other than India, applications should be made to the patent offices in the countries concerned.

3. Fees are payable in cash and must be received in the Patent Office within the time allowed by the Act. When charges are referred to payment of fees, it must be clearly understood that the office cannot hold itself responsible for any delay that may occur in the collection of such fees or charges; any charges not payable in Calcutta are subject to examination for which due allowance should be made. In cases where it is not possible to have the fees collected in at the Patent Office, it is preferable to send them by money order or postal order payable at Calcutta to the Controller of Patents and Designs, and to advise him that they have been so sent. Cheques will not be received in payment of fees.

4. Trade and property marks and names are not registered and protected under the Indian Patents and Designs Act. There is no provision of law in British India for their registration. Neither does this Act deal with systems, photographs, etc., for which copyright is obtainable under the Indian Copyright Act, 1912.

7. Printed specifications of applications, which have been accepted, are published within about three weeks after acceptance has been notified in the Gazette of India. These specifications may be purchased at the Patent Office at a uniform price of 1/6 rupee per copy and may be sent free of charge, together with other publications of the Patent Office, at the following places—

ORDER OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

ORDER XIII, RULE 8.

Add the following as sub-rule 4.—

"Subject to the provisions of Rule 8 above, where a document is produced by a person who is not a party to the suit and such person applies for the return of the document heretofore provided and satisfactory to produce it whenever required to do so, the Court shall, except for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, require the party on whose behalf the document was produced, to submit to the Court, within a reasonable time, a certificate signed by the applicant, and shall thereupon return the original document to be returned to the applicant and may further make such order as to costs and charges in the behalf as it thinks fit. If the copy is not provided within the time fixed by the Court, the original document shall be retained to the applicant without further delay."

High Court, Madras,
15th September 1933.

Under the provisions of section 125 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and with the previous sanction of His Excellency the Governor in Council, the High Court has made the following amendments of the Civil Rules of Procedure and Circular Orders, 1937, Volume I.—

In Rule 116 (H), for paragraphs 2 and 3 substitute the following:—

"On receipt of such application, the Superintendent, prisoner or other officer may, where the applicant otherwise requires, and also for the payment or order of the Court of First Instance, issue such judgment or order as may appear to be proper, and shall submit the proper charges recorded according to clause (D) above for printing both. In such case the printer shall ordinarily supply eight printed copies, six of which shall be delivered to the applicant."

Out of the six copies delivered to him, he shall not be further charged for two of such copies and for the others he shall be charged at a rate not exceeding one anna per page.
